

Look who is coming to Stone Fort Days

Gen -Nis-He-Yo Trading Company - Erwin a Tschanz

A Master Hornsmith and Journey-man Leather worker will present an assortment of reproduction 18th century horn, leather and treen (wood) items.

Gossville Shoes - Bruce & Penny Graham

Handcrafted 18th century shoes, buckles and hand bound blank books are the Graham's special offerings.

Master Hornsmith John Proud

John will be demonstrating the preparations to making a powder horn. He will have a wide assortment of hornwork.

Quinn's Irish Hill Farm - Thomas Quinn

Thom and Pat share the steps of making natural soap, beekeeping and making a colonial round broom.

R J Butternut - Richard and Nancy DiGregorio

Richard works on leather accoutrements and Nancy creates linen clothing.

Red Haw Creek Floorcloths - Rich and Pam Blaha

Rich and Pam Blaha create the most beautiful hand painted floorcloths and natural dyed yarns.

Terri Pittman, Milliner at the Sign of the Silver Thimble

Terri's Millinery is full of wonderful items too many to detail here. You must stop in to see what the latest goody she has to offer.

Terrace Mountain Sutler - Sue Hess

Sue is providing a collection of hunting bags and assorted 18th century items.

The Scarlet Scarab - Lisa Tolls & Everett Howell

Lisa and Everett have packed their tent with all sorts of wonderful 18th century goods. Including blankets, oilcloth, wool socks and straw hats to name just a few.

Russel Spies

Russ is well known for his buttons of all sorts. You never know what treasures you will find on his blanket.

*Thank you to all our reenactors
and the willingness to share their talents!*