

K is for Kniskern chests. Two young girls, Elizabeth and Margareda Kniskern, were inside the Old Stone Fort during the Johnson Raid. Their father, John, was stationed on top of the church tower as a sharpshooter. It is believed that the girls kept their most valuable things inside the chests as they waited in the fort until the danger passed. What do you think they would have had inside them?

